

Company HR Policy

1. Working Hours

The standard working hours for employees are 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM, Monday through Friday.

Employees are expected to complete 8 working hours per day, excluding the lunch break.

Employees should arrive on time and be available during their scheduled working hours.

2. Lunch Break

Employees are entitled to a one-hour lunch break between 12:30 PM and 2:00 PM.

Employees may choose their lunch break time within this period depending on their team schedule.

3. Leave Policy

Employees are entitled to the following types of leave:

- Casual Leave: 12 days per year
- Sick Leave: 10 days per year
- Earned Leave: 15 days per year
- Public Holidays: According to the company's holiday calendar

Employees should submit leave requests through the company's leave management system.

For planned leave, employees should submit their request at least 3 working days in advance.

For emergency or sick leave, employees should notify their manager as soon as possible.

4. Work From Home Policy

Employees may request work from home when permitted by their team and manager.

Work-from-home requests should normally be submitted at least one working day in advance.

Employees working from home must remain available during normal working hours and attend scheduled meetings.

5. Attendance Policy

Employees must record their attendance using the company's attendance system.

If an employee forgets to record attendance, they should inform their manager or HR department.

Repeated attendance violations may result in disciplinary action.

6. Overtime Policy

Employees who are required to work beyond their normal working hours may be eligible for overtime compensation according to company policy and applicable employment regulations.

Overtime should be approved by the employee's manager before the additional work is performed whenever possible.

7. Employee Benefits

Eligible full-time employees may receive benefits including:

- Health insurance
- Paid leave
- Retirement benefits
- Performance bonuses
- Employee training programs

Benefits may vary depending on the employee's position, employment type, and applicable company policies.

8. Performance Reviews

Employees normally receive a performance review twice per year.

Performance reviews may consider:

- Work quality
- Productivity
- Attendance
- Teamwork
- Communication
- Achievement of assigned goals

Managers discuss performance results with employees and may create improvement plans when necessary.

9. Code of Conduct

Employees are expected to behave professionally and respectfully toward colleagues, customers, and business partners.

Harassment, discrimination, bullying, threats, and inappropriate workplace behavior are not permitted.

Employees should protect confidential company information and must not share confidential information with unauthorized individuals.

10. Resignation and Notice Period

Employees who wish to resign must submit a written resignation to their manager and HR department.

The standard notice period is 30 days unless the employment agreement specifies a different period.

Employees should complete the required handover process before their final working day.

11. HR Support

Employees can contact the HR department for questions about:

- Leave
- Attendance
- Payroll
- Benefits
- Performance reviews
- Workplace policies
- Resignation procedures

Employees should contact HR when they are unsure about a company policy.